2011 Chinese Bridge Delegation: Apply Today!

Delegation dates: November 3–11, 2011

Application deadline: June 3, 2011

To help education decision-makers start and expand their Chinese language and culture programs, the College Board and Hanban (Hanban/Confucius Institute Headquarters) are pleased to announce the 2011 Chinese Bridge Delegation — a one-week education trip hosted by Hanban. The program focuses on school visits, cultural activities and educational workshops.

Participants will:

- Visit Chinese K–12 schools, meet with Chinese educators and observe classes.
- Establish meaningful partnerships with Chinese schools and network with colleagues from the U.S.
- Learn about best practices and resources to build and support Chinese language and culture programs.
- Experience China firsthand and marvel at the rich traditional culture set against stunning modern development.

Eligible Participants:

District and school leaders and other decision-makers with oversight of foreign language learning. Participants in past delegations are not eligible to apply.

Participant Cost:

$900 registration fee, plus transportation fees to hub city for international departure.

Delegates are provided free of charge with international round-trip airfare, accommodations, food and travel expenses in China.

Requirements:

- Have a valid passport, with at least six months validity after November 3, 2011.
- Understand and accept trip goals and expectations.
- Participate in all scheduled events.
- Be prepared for an intense schedule, including up to 15 hours of activities per day.
